NO CHANGING IN THE VOTE TODAY

Ministers' Trust Busted By The Speaker Of The Assembly This Morning--No Joint Session Expected Tomorrow Noon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 5.—Senator Stephenson failed at election again today when the seventh ballot was taken. He received 50 out of 128 votes cast, lacking five votes of a majority necessary to elect. There were five absentees.
The legislature took but one ballot and then adjourned. Many members have left for their homes, but enough will stay to constitute a quorum, although it is thought both houses will adjourn this afternoon until Tuesday.
The house adjourned until two-thirty this afternoon and it is not expected that any business of importance will be transacted. The talk still prevails relative to the filing of the Stephenson expense account and the proposed investigation.
It is declared here that the expense account of Isaac Stephenson is short of being filed by his manager, State Chairman E. A. Edwards, and that it will not only show the amount spent in the last primary election, when Senator Stephenson won a re-election for the senate, but also show the contributions made by Senator Stephenson to the La Follette presidential campaign of last year, and may also go farther back and tell of the half-million or more spent by Senator Stephenson in maintaining the Milwaukee Free Press as the La Follette factional organ, and money otherwise contributed to the several expensive La Follette campaigns.
If the statement does this, it will be a public illumination of the integrity of Senator La Follette in turning down the generous old man after being for those many years the political benefactor of the Marquette man's contributions.
Speaker Hancock hosted a trust of Madison ministers today. They had an association which controlled appointments of legislative chaplains, who got $3 per prayer.
This association refused to allow a reverend friend of the speaker to have a chance at praying. Speaker Hancock denounced the combination of preachers, as headed by a Rev. Todd, and the assembly admitted Hancock's friend to pray.

ANNIE YEAMANS' CAREER AT END

CURTAIN RUNG DOWN FOR GRAND OLD LADY OF STAGE
WAS TAKEN ILL A WEEK AGO

Is Seventy-Five Years Old and Will Never Appear Before Footlights
Again—Story of Her Life.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Feb. 5.—So far as her professional career is concerned the curtain has been rung down for Mrs. Annie Yeaman, the veteran actress, who since the death of Mrs. John Gilbert, has held the undisputed title as "the grand old lady of the stage." Mrs. Yeaman was taken seriously ill a week ago just after she had begun a successful engagement in this city. Her age—she is nearly 75—makes her return to the stage very improbable.
Mrs. Yeaman has been a favorite with two generations of playgoers. To the older generation she is best remembered for her impersonation of Irish characters in the Harrington and Hart successes. This has led many people to think her an Irish woman, with a native brogue, in point of fact she is nothing of the kind. She was born in the Isle of Man and has always been very proud of being a Manx woman. When a child she was taken by her parents to Australia and it was there that she began her professional career as an entertainer in a circus. At 18 she married Edward Yeaman, a circus clown.
The early experiences of Mrs. Yeaman were many and varied. In 1863 she left Australia with the circus for a long tour. They went to Java, Singapore, to Shanghai and to Yokohama, and were to have proceeded to Manila, when the manager fell ill in Shanghai and the circus disbanded. Mrs. Yeaman, always indefatigable, together with her husband and a few colleagues, gathered together other stranded actors in Shanghai and went through portions of China, giving dramatic performances with their own little company.
After settling in the United States in 1868, Mrs. Yeaman went for her father and mother, with whom she had her two eldest children in Australia. They came to New York and settled there, a family of stage folk. Mrs. Yeaman is the sole survivor of the family. Her father and mother and her two daughters have passed away. One of the latter, Lydia, Yeaman-Titus, was herself a well known actress.
Upon arrival in New York Mrs. Yeaman found employment in the stock company at the Park Theater in Brooklyn. A short time previously her husband had fallen a victim to cholera in Leavenworth, Kas. At the Park Theater Mrs. Yeaman played leading parts with such stars as Maggie Mitchell, Lottie John Broughman, John E. Owens and L. B. Claxton. With her daughter, who played in Augustin Daly's Grand Opera House Company in '72 and '73, she understudied Frochard in the first memorable production of "The Two Orphans" at the Union Square Theater, in '74 and '75. In that company were McKee Rankin, Kate Claxton, Charles Thorne, Jr., and Ida Vernon.
On and off from 1877 until the dissolution of the firm, nearly twenty years later, Mrs. Yeaman played Irish character parts and other eccentric impersonations with the famous Harrington and Hart combination.
A later event in the career of the veteran actress was her appearance in "The Great Diamond Robbery," in 1886, with Richard Walsh, W. H. Thompson, Catherine Grey, Orrin Johnson, George Boniface, Sr., and the great Mme. Jannaschek.

TERRIBLE TOLL OF CONSUMPTION

DURING PAST YEAR 2,411 DIED
OF TUBERCULOSIS
IN THE STATE OF WISCONSIN

Estimated economic loss of $12,000,000
—Pneumonia Cost 2,333 Lives
—Cancer, 1,221.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 5.—During the year just closed, 2,411 deaths of people residing in the state were reported to the state health department. This gives an annual death rate for the entire state of 11.5 per thousand estimated population. Using the method adopted and recommended by the federal census bureau, the estimated population of Wisconsin for the year 1908 is 2,328,000.
The most important cause of death in point of actual numbers and also when age is considered to individuals who died from such disease, is pulmonary tuberculosis. The reports show that 2,411 deaths were reported from this disease during the twelve months ending Dec. 31, 1908. A very large per cent, in fact the figures show practically all the deaths from this disease, were among persons from eighteen to forty-five years of age. Just nine per cent of the total deaths resulted from tuberculosis. Almost every eleven people who died during the year, one died from tuberculosis.

Loss of $12,055,000
The economic loss to the state of Wisconsin each year of people in the prime of life who sacrifice themselves to the ravages of this disease cannot be accurately estimated, for the reason that it has been found impossible as yet to fix upon a standard in determining the value of human life. It has been estimated that in slavery days a healthy negro in the prime of life was worth approximately $5,000. If this value can be placed upon the lives sacrificed to tuberculosis the economic loss during the past year in Wisconsin is $12,055,000.
Exactly 588, or twenty-one per cent of the total deaths were among persons under one year of age. The number of children born each year who live at least one year is an index of the influence of home environment upon child life. It is very evident that parents and others charged with the care of young children should be better informed regarding the feeding and care of infants. During the year, 974 children under two years of age died from diarrhea and enteritis, largely as a result of improper feeding and improper food.

Other Death Causes
—Important causes of death during the year were as follows: pulmonary tuberculosis, 2,024; other tuberculosis, 387; typhoid fever, 322; diphtheria, 386; scarlet fever, 322; measles, 77; whooping cough, 124; pneumonia, 2,333; enteritis under two years, 974; meningitis, 625; influenza, 282; pertussis, 107; cancer, 1,221; violence, 1,128; and stillbirths, 1,489.
Just 8.7 per cent of the total deaths were from pneumonia and 5.3 per cent resulted from violence. Among the deaths from violence the following causes are important and interesting: suicide, 262; homicide, 21; railroad, 182; street railway, 29; gunshot, 82; burns, 9; drowning, 225; explosions, 9; falls, 11; poisoning, 5; lightning, 5; automobiles, 1; hydrophobia, 2; coal gas, 2; freezing, 6; and cyclone, 2. Compared with the preceding years for which statistics are obtainable, there has been an increase in the number of deaths from suicide, homicide, and drowning.

Two Hydrophobia Deaths
The two deaths from hydrophobia recorded during the year are unusual in this state. Statistics collected from the various newspaper reports giving the number of persons bitten by dogs and other animals suspected of having hydrophobia serves to emphasize the importance of having a place in the state where preventive treatment in all suspicious cases can be had free of charge.
Under the present system of collecting the mortality statistics the distribution of deaths from any cause, by townships, villages, and cities in each county is determined. Such a system is indispensable to efficient public health work and will result in practically eradicating preventable diseases as soon as people can be educated to the importance and method of preventive treatment.

Work of State Board
The fact that 386 young lives were sacrificed as a result of diphtheria emphasizes the importance of early diagnosis and prophylactic treatment of all cases of suspicious sore throat. The physicians, generally speaking, use antitoxin quite freely, but in many instances the child suffering from the disease is moribund before a physician is called.
In practically every case of death from diphtheria either antitoxin is not administered at all, or is not given soon enough to insure recovery. The state board of health now has more than one hundred distributing stations in various parts of the state where antitoxin can be obtained free of charge for all indigent persons suffering from the disease. The remedy can also be obtained at these stations at the usual market price for all other cases.

A well-known doctor says: "Worry, ill-temper, fault-finding, crossness, dojection are all forms of mental disease. They are also contagious. The law compels those having contagious physical disease to isolate themselves. Why should the law be more lenient to those who, with lowering brow, sulen aspect, nagging or caustic speech profane or poison the moral atmosphere and disseminate the germs of evil?"

To the Voters of Janesville.
I desire to announce my candidacy for Mayor on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held March 23.

MOTOR CAR WILL BE SHIPPED TOMORROW

Owen Thomas' Automobile Will Be Sent to Chicago to Be Exhibited in Auto Show.

Tomorrow the Owen Thomas Motor Car company will be shipped to Chicago to be set up and ready when the show opens Monday morning. Today all was bustle and bustle to put the finishing touches on the parts and then assemble the automobile. This morning the work of attaching the body to the framework was begun, and the rest of the day was spent in correctly arranging the engine and gears of the car. The putting of the machine together was done in the company's shop at the old roundhouse.

After the automobile show the company will begin the erection of a plant where the construction of other automobiles can be carried on. A meeting of the directors was held yesterday and it was decided that a factory was needed, and a definite location was decided upon, but they decline to give out now just where it will be put.

Under the present conditions the erection of their machine has been most difficult, as different parts of the machine are made in various places and to get them together requires considerable time and trouble. The proper machinery for making certain metal parts of the car cannot be obtained in Janesville at the present time in any of the shops and with their own factory they expect to acquire these tools.

BROUGHT INTO COURT FOR STEALING COAL

Mrs. Charles Homan Must Pay Fine of Five Dollars—Angus McDaniel's Trial Next Monday.

Two families were brought into court this morning charged with stealing coal and it is evident from the attitude which the Milwaukee road has taken that they intend to prosecute all offenders whom they catch. The first case brought up was that of Mrs. Charles Homan and her two boys who were charged with stealing coal from the C. M. & P. R. road. The case as far as the boys were concerned was dismissed, but Mrs. Homan pleaded guilty. She was given a fine of five dollars and costs or seven days in jail and was allowed until tomorrow to secure the money for the fine.

On the same complaint Angus McDaniel and his two sons, John and Burnett, entered a plea of not guilty and the case was adjourned until Monday, February 8.

Wm. Farrell was given a fine of $3 and costs, or seven days in jail, for drunkenness and being unable to pay went down to the county jail. Farrell was arrested last night in answer to a complaint received from a resident of Bluff street who said that the man was attempting to enter a house. In his intoxicated condition Farrell did not know what he was doing and frightened the lady of the house very badly.

No Book Hunters Now.

A well-known provincial member of that very honorable trade of second-hand bookselling said recently: "The hunt after rare books is as keen as ever, but I chiefly make the young men who would mark down a book in my street-stall and would save up to buy it. There is plenty of book-buying, but there is no longer any book-hunting."

Charm of the Atomizer.

"My aunt has the prettiest cat," said the girl who had just come in, "but it was delicate. She used my cousin Philip's atomizer on its throat. The cat had asthma. Finally she gave it away. The groom took it miles in the country, but it came back in a week and sat on the windowsill, waiting to be let in. Philip said it came back because it missed this atomizer."

An Architect's Patrons.

John Mervyn Carrere, at a meeting of architects in New York, said: "Amazing, the age of an architect's patrons! The average man, in fact, is 35 before he begins to save seriously; his pile isn't made till he is 50; he begins to build himself a house in his old age, and his funeral takes place about the time the palatial are called in."

FOREST SERVICE WAS CRITICIZED

Congressmen Charge Extravagance and Extortion.

BAILEY LAUDS THE HORSE

Texas Senator Praises Noble Animal Which He Feels Will Be Displaced If President Gets Automobiles Provided in Bill.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Charges of extortion of money from farmers and owners of bee hives and extravagance were made in attacks on the national forestry service in the house. Mr. Cook of Colorado, Smith of California and Mondell of Wyoming made the charges.

Mr. Cook attributed to Mr. Pinchot, the chief forester, the ulterior motive of scheming for Secretary Wilson's seat in the cabinet. Both Mr. Pinchot and the forest service were vigorously defended by Messrs. Mann (Ill.) and Weeks (Mass.).

All attempts to amend the bill in any important particular failed. Its consideration was about two-thirds completed when the house adjourned.

Quiet in the Senate.

The monotonous tones of the reading clerk of the senate as he labored through the bill of over 100 pages making appropriations for the District of Columbia constituted the chief feature in the proceedings of that body yesterday. There was an evident inclination on the part of the minority to lengthen the time necessary to dispose of the measure, it being the only obstacle to an executive session for the further consideration of the nomination of William D. Crum to be collector of customs of Charleston, S. C.

On the Democratic side there was a persistent demand for the most careful reading of the bill and occasional members of the minority became involved in a spirited debate on items usually left to the judgment of the committee reporting the measure.

When the senate adjourned the reading of only half of the bill had been completed.

BAILEY LAUDS THE HORSE.

"I am told that if the appropriation for automobiles for the president of the United States remains in the urgent deficiency bill," said Senator Bailey, "it is the intention of the president to discard horses and to use automobiles only."

Mr. Bailey then proceeded to advocate the rights of the horse against any kind of mechanical contrivance for transportation purposes. The bill was not at the time before the senate for action.

PROBE "MAN IN BOX" MYSTERY.

Authorities Believe Attempt Was Made to Rob Express Car.

Toledo, O., Feb. 5.—Toledo police and railroad authorities are investigating a "man in the box" mystery which they believe was an attempt to rob the express car on a Lake Shore train. Since Wednesday morning, when the strange case was reported, the matter had been suppressed.

In the car was a long box, consigned from Toledo to Worcester, Mass., by the American Express Company. Near Sandusky the messenger heard a voice coming from the box and upon forcing the lid, discovered a man, who jumped out and began a struggle. The messenger, however, pulled his revolver and compelled the stranger to throw up his hands. The train was stopped and the man hustled out of the car into the darkness. Cleveland and Toledo were notified but there is no clue.

DISCUSS TARIFF ON PAPER.

Manufacturers Meet in New York and Elect New Officers.

New York, Feb. 5.—The members of the American Paper and Pulp association at their annual meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria yesterday discussed the tariff on paper and the price of newspaper print paper in executive session. The following officers were elected: President, Arthur C. Hinings of the Cliff Paper Company, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; vice-president, G. F. Stead of the Nokona-Pedward Paper Company, Port Edwards, Wis.; secretary and treasurer, Louis Chabot of this city.

Urge Removal of Coffee Tariff.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—A campaign of education for a removal of all tariff on tea and coffee imported into the United States was urged at a meeting of the Tea and Coffee Dealers' association of Chicago, at the Sheraton house last night, and resolutions were adopted calling upon the Illinois members of congress and the two United States senators, for their help in having such tariff removed.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 5.—Rev. James P. Peden, pastor of the Coweta Baptist church, was severely horse-whipped on Main street by Mrs. L. J. Charlton, a well-known society woman, who accused the minister of making disparaging remarks about her. Peden was carried away bleeding and unconscious.

EAU CLAIRE READY FOR SKI TOURNEY

Fifth Annual Contest of the National Association of America Opens There Tomorrow.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Eau Claire, Wis., Feb. 5.—The fifth annual tournament of the National Ski association of America will begin here tomorrow under conditions perhaps more favorable for a successful tournament than ever before since the introduction of the popular Scandinavian sport into this country. The entry list is large and a good attendance of visitors is assured. The local arrangements for the tournament are of the most perfect and elaborate character.

The events of the tournament will extend over two days. Prominent among the participants will be several skilled ski artists recently arrived from Norway. Others taking part will include crack runners from Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Ishpeming, Superior, Chippewa Falls, Red Wing and other points in Minnesota, Wisconsin and the upper peninsula of Michigan where ski jumping has gained popularity. Several points in Canada and northern New York also are sending representatives to compete for the prizes. The large and high class list of entries gives every promise that the American record jump of 122 feet made at Ishpeming last year by John Ryerson of Duluth will be beaten at this year's tournament. The contest will take place on the magnificent slide built this year by the Eau Claire Ski club.

GOOD MARKSMANSHIP ON U. S. BATTLESHIPS

Vermont's Jackies win the Pennant with the Minnesota's in Second Place.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Scores in marksmanship of the battleship fleet practicing in Manila bay, show a big improvement over those of any preceding year.

The improvement with heavy guns was over 100 per cent. greater than that of the previous year. These facts are shown by the records of battle practice in Manila bay, received by Commander Sims, the inspector of target practice, by whom they have been carefully tabulated.

The average percentage of hits made by these guns was over 60 per cent. of the shots fired, and some ships made from 75 to 80 per cent. and the increase in rapidity of hitting was considerably over 100 per cent.

The ranges at which the battleships fired were from 5,000 to 9,000 yards, according to the power of their guns. These ranges were unmarked, and the ships steamed on a course and at a speed of which they were not informed until they opened a sealed envelope just before going on the range.

The department yesterday also made public information relative to the comparative battle efficiency of vessels of the battleship, cruiser and gunboat classes attained at the autumn target practice of 1908.

Following are the marks of the first five vessels competing for the battleship trophy:

Vermont, pennant winner, 68.271.
Minnesota, 48.555.
Pennsylvania, 48.018.
Colorado, 36.917.
New Jersey, 37.841.

In the vessels competing for the cruiser trophy the Galveston, the pennant winner, has a mark of 25, and the Yorktown, star ship, has a mark of 22. In the vessels competing for the gunboat trophy the Wilmington is the pennant winner with a mark of 37, and the Yankton and Rainbow are star ships with scores of 33 and 32, respectively. In most of the records above given the fractional parts of a mark are omitted.

PISTOL BATTLE IN STREETS.

Memphis (Tenn.) Robber Fights with Police and Citizens.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 5.—Following a daring hold-up on a busy thoroughfare yesterday, Henry Morton, a negro, armed with a revolver and with pockets filled with ammunition, ran amuck, firing repeatedly into street cars and houses, and at pedestrians and terrorized a section of North Memphis before he was shot to death by police and citizens.

After relieving another negro of a bundle of hides, Morton endeavored to force a trade with a produce dealer at the point of his pistol. The negro was located aboard a street car, but as an officer approached he jumped from the car, firing blindly several times. As he ran he continued to fire. As pedestrians appeared the negro shot hurriedly and continued his race. Several groups of school children were fired on, and firing into a house the bullets of the negro narrowly missed a woman occupant.

A riot call brought a squad of police, who were joined by several scores of citizens, and Morton was finally cornered on a porch. At bay, the negro continued to fire on his pursuers, but his bullets went wild while a volley from the pursuers put an end to the battle.

The W. C. T. U. mothers' meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. George Jacobs, Thursday afternoon, was in charge of Mrs. Haffery and the subject was "Our Boys." Various useful ideas and suggestions for correcting the wayward tendencies of young men were advanced. Mrs. Norman Hild read a very thoughtful paper on "The White Life" and the general discussion brought out some interesting opinions regarding the duty and attitude of Christian people towards unfortunate girls. The quartette rendered several selections and the meeting closed with a fifteen-minute health talk conducted by Mrs. G. H. Webster. Attendance at the meeting was excellent.

COMING EVENTS

From the present viewpoint the near future will not be an uneventful period. We are within a month of the end of the current presidential administration, which has in many respects been one of the most remarkable since the Civil war. The fourth of March will inaugurate the twenty-seventh president of the United States from whose administration there is almost universal expectation of a quality on which the business judgment of the country can bank in bringing affairs back to the normal tenor.

On March 10 a special session of congress will convene, presumably to get down to real business on the subject of the tariff. The results of the labor of the ways and means committee will probably be embodied in a house measure, upon passage of which the senate will take up the matter and spend several weeks at least in settling up the sort of a schedule which it deems adaptable to the time. Then the tug of war will come in the conference between the house and the senate committees for compromise and adjustment.

Meanwhile the state legislatures of the majority of states will have finished their program of enactments affecting the business of the country. Agriculture will have resumed its active work upon the soil, and the market will know whether or not the increase in the various crops will have been increased or decreased. Winter wheat will start upon its third period of growth, furnishing occasion for those good promises and crop scares to which the exchanges all over the world are so susceptible in the early stages of the major wheat crop of the world.

Side by side with this the seedling and the progress of spring wheat in the northwest will be a more active factor than ever, with the expansion of Canadian settlement of new lands. Menusure a program of agricultural expansion is under way in Argentina. The world over high prices of food are likely to contribute to larger application of capital and labor to agricultural enterprises in the first half of 1909. Court decisions, international politics and world finance have in store several events which the market may well keep in mind.

THE DEMAND FOR MEN

"Back of all standards of material value, whether in the form of money or of commodities, lies the more ultimate criterion of value in the form of men. Man in the last analysis is the unit by which we gauge the worth of dollars, the cost of material things and the price of prosperity," says an exchange.

"We may seek to explain economic conditions at the present time by subtle analyses of the gold supply or by gross expostulations of agricultural wealth. But in neither of these cases can be found the real thing that gives value to the products in question, whether they come from the farm or the mine. Man is the measure of things. His worth is the world-wide yardstick by which we rate the things that are produced, distributed and consumed for the supply of human needs.

"Thus the situation discloses itself when regarded intensively. Viewed extensively, so as to regard the labor market in its world-wide aspects, it is truer than ever that we are on the verge of a universal demand for men. The movement of gold to Argentina, the pushing of projects by a single international contracting firm in South America, involving $100,000,000 of investment in railroads alone, the wider opening of colonial Africa, the invitation of the Turkish empire to western capital on a safer basis of investment, and the rivalry between China, Russia and Japan about the paralleling of the Southern Manchurian railway, together with the double-tracking of the Trans-Siberian and the promise to complete the Panama canal by 1915, all these items represent an increasing demand for men on a scale which cannot be ignored.

"It is this semi-active, semi-latent demand for men that has done more than anything else to give the times stability as compared with other periods when panic and prostration overtook the occupations of the people. Heretofore the fabric of credit has tumbled down in similar periods. There has been wreck and ruin, succeeded by slow and prolonged up-building. But the dominance of the human element in enterprise, as distinguished from the mechanical, gives a different standard of valuation, a different measure of the rate of progress than that of the per cent of dividends. Personality, not only in its earning power but also in its purchasing power is the final unit by which progress and prosperity are to be gauged."

The Beloit Daily News seeks to endorse Simon Smith's bolting the result of the primary election. It seems rather peculiar that such should be the case when for many years the paper has endorsed the primary as the panacea of all existing political evils. It depends upon which foot the shoe pinches.

Janeville now has a new fire engine to meet any emergency that may come. It is to be hoped it will not be needed, but it is always best to be on the safe side of the question.

Still the legislature trembles and quibbles over the question of the Senate and follows the dictates of the "wee small voice" to make all the opposition they can. Some day they will see their mistake.

The spring thaw appears to have dampened the ardor of the aspiring candidates for office and they are probably waiting for the weather to become more settled before they step into the limelight of publicity.

In less than a month President Roosevelt will have joined the ranks of the ex-presidents, but will have the distinction of being the only one of his class in the United States.

Taft has predicted that the big Panama canal will be ready to handle vessels by 1915. This is a trifle ahead of the date fixed by even the most optimistic for some time past.

Heart to Heart Talks.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

"He was inspired of God, also where did he get his wisdom and virtue? Where did Shakespeare get his genius or Mozart his music? Who wrote the lives of the Scottish peasant? As God raised up and inspired them, so did he Lincoln.

That is the utterance of the greatest editor of the south, Henry Watterson, in his lecture on Lincoln.

On the 12th day of February next will be celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth. Eulogies will be pronounced, and orators will analyze the beginnings and trace the growth of this great soul, but when all is done they must come back to the conclusions of Watterson.

God made Lincoln. And Lincoln, in the making, co-operated with the Divine purposes.

You cannot account for Lincoln on the theory of heredity. At their very best his people were accounted as "poor white trash." Nor can you account for him on the theory of environment. There was nothing in his surroundings that would make a great man.

And yet— It is scarcely impious to suggest that since the days of Christ himself no man was so humanly divine.

If you wish to realize this statement in its fullness, read over again the beautiful words of the sermon on the mount and note how Lincoln's character fills the measure of these beatitudes.

"Blessed are the merciful." Who was more merciful than this man, whose soft heart ached for the suffering south and who could hardly be forced to consider the death of a deserter?

"Blessed are the pure in heart." How that fits Lincoln! His "great white soul" was as innocent of guile as that of a child.

"Blessed are the meek." Who was meeker in his high position than this shy, awkward giant?

Go on and read about the peace-makers and all the rest, and you will be forced to Watterson's conclusions.

Since Lincoln no one ought to find it difficult to understand how the divine and the human could be merged in a man.

What is the worth of that celebration at the tomb in Springfield cemetery and at Lincoln farm.

It is to be found in the law of assimilation. A people is assimilated, slowly merged, into the likeness of its great men whom it loves and admires.

We need a renaissance of the qualities of Lincoln.

GRAPES

To younger housekeepers, to beginners in the art of bread and cake making, no assistant will prove so helpful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. It will make you the best food easily and quickly.

It would be unwise to experiment with the cheap alum baking powders. They contain a poisonous element which slight accident or error in handling sometimes results in serious consequences.

Jersey's Summer Hotels.

It is estimated that the summer hotels of the White mountains are worth $5,000,000; of Vermont, the same; Massachusetts, $10,000,000; those of the Catskills, $3,000,000; of the Adirondacks, $7,000,000; of Connecticut, $4,000,000, and those of New Jersey, $50,000,000.—National World.

Ammonia for Heart.

Spirits of ammonia is undoubtedly of great value in cases of heart or nerve exhaustion, and a few drops in a glassful of cold vichy water is a great tonic. It is not one that should be taken without the advice of a physician, however, for it is capable of injuring the heart.

ENGINE TESTED THIS AFTERNOON

IN FRONT OF WEST SIDE FIRE STATION.

PUT IT THROUGH TRIALS

That It Will Have to Meet When in Use—Council Committee Present.

The public exhibition of the new fire engine took place this afternoon in front of the West Side Fire station on North River street in the presence of the members of the Fire and Water Committee of the common council and about a hundred other spectators.

With the smokestack emitting black smoke that befogged the streets for blocks and clouds of steam arising from the boiler, as the pressure within became too great, the pistons of the engine and pump were kept racing up and down, forcing the water through the leads of hose. The strain on the machine of the work that she was doing did not, however, seem to affect it very greatly, for it did its work perfectly.

In the demonstrations this afternoon the engine was taken out of the West Side Fire station and hauled down to the station in Spring Brook, where it will be stored until it is sold.

After the old machine was out of the way, C. J. Murphy and Benjamin Hurlburt, who are to learn to run the new engine, were shown by P. J. Alton how to prepare the engine for use, and with his aid the engine was made ready. About ten o'clock it was taken outside the station onto River street for the preliminary trial.

This was to test the working of the engine and pump, and to see if in shipping the machine had been damaged. Only two leads of hose were therefore used and the pump was worked to half capacity, throwing but four hundred and fifty gallons of water per minute. The test lasted for about an hour.

In the examination of the steamer this morning, with a nozzle an inch and three-eighths and one and one-eighth in diameter were used. Both nozzles were first worked at the same time and then they were used separately. By using the smaller nozzle alone and with but half pressure the opposite bank of the river was reached from the alleyway which parallels North River street. The other nozzle threw a stream of water about as high as the Jackson block and a short distance into the river.

The supply of water for the experiments this morning was secured by leading the big force pipe of the pump down into the manhole of the sewer on North River street, in front of the fire station. As only water and melted ice were passing through at the time it was possible to use it in the tests without clogging the pump.

While no arrests have as yet been made in the Cronin murder the detectives at work on the case have carefully investigated every clue that has been presented. Two men, the same two tramps who were seen in Clinton previous to the murder and the night before the death of Cronin, attempted to hold up a buggy under the railway arch on the footbridge road and were traced as far as Grout, but upon examination it was found they were locked up on Thursday night, the evening Michael Cronin met his death. Several miles west of the city and one of them served a ten-day term in the Green county jail. The report that arrests had been made is due to the fact that the officers have questioned several local characters at different times regarding incidents. Governor Davidson has now officially offered a reward of $400 for any information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderers and the proclamation has been published, making it official. The county has also offered two hundred dollars reward for the solving of the mystery. This far no trace has been found of Thomas McLaughlin and no report made to the police or sheriff relative to the fact John McQuill is missing.

REFEREE SAYS KIERAN COMPANY IS INSOLVENT

Finds Fidelity Concern Has Liabilities of $767,317.28 and Assets of $22,931.46.

New York, Feb. 5.—In his report on the condition of the Fidelity Funding Company, Edwin A. Watson, referee, says the concern is insolvent and should be dissolved.

The property of the company has been in the hands of Thomas F. Gilroy, Jr., as receiver since October 27 last, when a clamor raised by Catholic institutions, which had financial dealings with the company inspired the belief that the Fidelity Funding Company might not be solvent.

Patrick J. Kieran, secretary and active manager of the concern, caused comment recently by vanishing for a time, but he has now reappeared and testified regarding the company's affairs before the receiver's hearing yesterday.

Referee Watson in his report says that when receiver Gilroy took hold of the company's affairs he found there furniture valued at less than $2,000 and notes, stocks and bonds, all of nominal value only. Since then the receiver has been able to collect only about $3,000.

The result of the investigation is summarized as follows:

Assets: Furniture and fixtures, $1,361.60; accounts receivable, $17,370.29; bank balances, $140.67; stock subscriptions, $3,450; total, $22,931.46. Liabilities: Unsecured accounts payable, $101,878.81; bills payable, $274,940.47; bills discounted, $389,000; bank overdrafts, $1,489; total, $767,317.28.

NEW RULES FOR SENATE.

Fairbanks Aims to Stop Attacks on the President.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Two striking amendments to the senate rules, both of which were prepared by Vice-President Fairbanks, were introduced in the senate yesterday by Senator Lodge, and were referred to the committee on rules. Their effect is to prevent a senator from referring offensively to either the president of the United States, courts, or to the house of representatives, and to put an end to the reading of documents which have no bearing upon subjects under discussion where the reading is for the sole purpose of advancing a filibuster. The proposed rules are as follows:

"When the reading of a paper is called for and objected to or when the reading of a paper by a senator is objected to, such objection shall be determined by a vote of the senate without debate."

"No senator in debate shall refer offensively to either of the other coordinate departments of the government, or to the other branch of congress."

BRYAN STILL SEES CHANCE.

Nebraskan Has Hopes for a Democratic Victory in 1912.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 5.—Speaking to an immense throng of people from the grand stand at the race track yesterday afternoon, William J. Bryan said he brought to the Democrats of the south a message of good cheer—that there is a steadily increasing sentiment that makes for the growth of the Democratic party in the United States.

In a speech last night Mr. Bryan said the trust question remains unsettled and will be a controlling issue in the next national campaign; that it would remain for the Democrats to give the American people the relief which they have for so long demanded. He scouted the idea that Mr. Taft or any other Republican will succeed in breaking the "Solid South." The policy of the Republican party, he said, was one of absolutism and centralization, a policy which he had not the least fear would ever appeal to the people of this section of the country.

DRAWN TO SCENE OF CRIME.

Georgian Who Killed Man in 1899 Surrenders to Sheriff.

Dublin, Ga., Feb. 5.—Drawn by some irresistible impulse to return to the scene where he killed a man when he was 15 years of age, Manly H. Tripp, after roaming a good portion of the world for ten years, yesterday surrendered to the sheriff of Laurens county. For some days he has been here and was an interested spectator in the courthouse during a trial. He was not recognized until he voluntarily surrendered. He shot James Hood down on the street in 1899. He escaped and efforts to capture him failed.

Transport in War Paint.

San Francisco, Feb. 5.—The naval transport Buffalo arrived here yesterday from Honolulu, painted lead color, in accordance with recent general order of the department received when the vessel was in the island port. This is the color used in time of war. The cruisers of the Pacific fleet will be painted the same color on their return to Magdalena bay from their cruise in southern waters.

Puts Child on Hot Stove.

Stanton, Ill., Feb. 5.—Julius Greenwalt, a coal miner, narrowly escaped rough handling at the hands of an enraged mob Wednesday night by being spirited away by the police of the village. Greenwalt placed the four-year-old child on the top of a red-hot stove because the child annoyed him. He was taken to Carlinville for safe keeping.

PURTELL TALKS ON SUBJECT OF FIRES

Tells Association of Mutual Insurance Companies That Carelessness Is the Main Cause.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., Feb. 5.—State Fire Marshal T. M. Purcell urged greater precautions for the prevention of fire before the Wisconsin Association of Mutual Insurance Companies at its biennial convention in this city today. He said that practically every fire in the country districts which does not come from accidental or natural causes, such as lightning, actually originates from causes traceable to neglect or carelessness. He named as these probable causes of unknown origin spontaneous combustion, carelessness with matches, and smoking.

"The conditions conducive to spontaneous combustion," he said, "are in a general way quite well understood, yet I do not believe the liability to fire from this source is given serious enough consideration. The average farmer understands the liability to fire from smoking, imperfectly-cured hay, and I believe it unnecessary to urge care in this subject. The liability to fire from the careless handling of oily rags, waste, etc., I do not believe is fully realized."

Mr. Purcell went on to show how fire might be started from this source and how it was a common hazard. He made the startling statement that unquestionably many of the so-called unknown fires starting in closets come from oil-soaked rags in the pockets of clothing itself hung therein. He said that frequently cast-off clothing of this sort is stored in a badly-ventilated attic, where weeks or months thereafter fires start without any apparent cause. He again alluded to the matter of safety matches and said that the manufacture of such merits serious consideration.

"The carelessness with which the habitual smoker handles his pipe is too delicate a subject for me to discuss, and I have yet to meet the smoker willing to admit that a firebrand might possibly be dropped from his pipe," declared Mr. Purcell. "Some even feel so secure in the safety of their pipes that they smoke while working in the strawstack or in the hay-mow."

Mr. Purcell showed that fires reported to the department during the month of January, 1909, caused by defective chimneys, stoves, etc., aggregated a loss of $7,693, and added, "There could be added to this many more of which the origin is given as unknown." He reiterated his former statements that the greatest care should be taken to keep chimneys clean.

DELIVERIES ARE BEING HASTENED

TOBACCO BUYERS HAVE ABOUT COMPLETED PRELIMINARY CANVASS.

HANDLING CROPS RAPIDLY

Weather of Past Week, However, Has Been Somewhat Against Deliveries Owing to Bad Roads.

While the weather of the past week has been somewhat adverse hastening deliveries of tobacco crops several large consignments have been brought into Janesville and reports from other receiving points show that much interest is being shown in hastening the deliveries so that the sorting rooms can be opened.

At Edgerton the Tobacco Reporter
has the following to say of the conditions:

The big storm which blocked the highways and railways, crippled the telegraph and telephone service, has served to slacken the buying movement somewhat during the week as well as the aggregate transactions.
However, the disposition to continue the movement is present and buyers are in the field for all grades of the crop, though there is hardly competition enough to strengthen prices. The following sales indicate the range taken:

H. A. Horried, 12a at 94c.
Mons. Bluff, 9a at 92c.
Nola Hingstad, 10a at 84c.
Hort Hoxson, 12a at 84c.
Geo. Swan, 12a at 84c.
T. Thompson, 25a at 82c.
Olm Gander, 14a at 82c.
W. C. & P. R. Morhouse, 12a at 74c.

A. Hansen, 12a at 64c.
Edgar Hamsford, 9a at 64c.
Felland & Wile, 8a at 72c.
Geo. Harton, 7a at 84c.
L. A. Walbridge, 6a at 7c.
A. G. Gelland, 7a at 54c.
O. H. Lien, 6a at 84c.
Albert Myer, 6a at 72c.
Henry Hultman, 4a at 72c.
Thos. Halverson, 4a at 72c.
S. Helgeland, 4a at 64c.
Farmers were able to make their deliveries on sleighs until the last thaw and tobacco is again coming in at receiving points quite liberally so that warehouse handling is going on uninterruptedly. Quite a large portion of the cheaper crops are being shipped out of the state in bundles.

The shipments out of storage reach 737 cases and six cartloads of bundles from this market to all points for the week. Since last report 27 cartloads have been received from outlying points for warehouse handling.

The low grades seem to be about the most salable portion of the crop, that is, the demand is greater than for the blonder portion of the crop. As was the case a year ago, this demand is for somewhat less instead of export orders which formerly was the outlet for nearly all the cheaper Wisconsin grades.

It looks now as if nearly half the '08
crop will go to the stock manufacturers or into strips for the manufacture of the combination smoking and chewing tobacco which has become a large part of the trade of manufactured tobacco.

While prices for these goods are hardly as strong as a year ago, outside figures are being paid for flue, both to growers and to packers, by concerns laying in their stock for the coming season.

Such conditions are sure to bring full prices for all classes of leaf that fall to grade as desirable leaders for some time to come, even though the clear manufacturers for the better grades are continually out of the market for the low grades are so plentifully out of proportion, quality considered, to those paid for blonder leaf, but it is one of those peculiar conditions of the trade that is hard to reconcile or to satisfactorily explain. That it is so is undenied.

Other gossip from Staughton and Broedhead show work is being done in these two receiving centers and the same is true of Orfordville. Tobacco deliveries were quite numerous yesterday and a large number of bales loaded with the remunerative would seem to be sent driving to the warehouses. When the figures were averaged in the neighborhood of 84 cents a pound. Most of the supply received yesterday was immediately forwarded to Edgerton, Janesville and other points south.

Indications at the present time are that warehouse sorting will continue until about April 7. Possibly 350 sorters are now being employed in all the warehouses and this number may be increased at any time.

Alburt Schreder is running the number with large quantities of sorters. Osmond Gunderson has been "riding" for Mr. Schreder, paying from 7 to 8 cents a pound for goods in the bundles. Those who demanded 10 and 11 cents a pound for 1908 crop early during the season are now accepting 8 1/2 to 9 cents a pound.

UNIVERSITY TESTS
GAS MEASUREMENTS

Finds Calorimeters Defective and Reports State Railroad

Madison, Wis., Feb. 5.—The department of chemical engineering at the University of Wisconsin, in charge of Professor Charles E. Burgess, has been carrying on an extensive series
of tests of the various methods for
measuring the heating values of gas,
in order to enable the State Railroad
commission to determine a standard
gas for fuel and illuminating purposes. The calorimeters of various types
made both in this country and abroad
used to test the heating value of gas
have been thoroughly tested. It was discovered that one type of instrument extensively used and sold
for heating values from 10 to 20
percent higher than the gases measured actually contained, and that erroneous results were being obtained
in gas producer and gas engine work
where these instruments were found
in use.

One of the most marked defects in
the calorimeter outfit was found due
to inaccurate thermometers. The various users of gas calorimeters in Wisconsin may have these defects
remedied by the university experts.
The department of chemical engineering has just made the announcement
that it is in a position to calibrate
accurately such calorimeter thermometers as may be sent to it by users in Wisconsin. The State Railroad Commission, through the cooperation of
this department, offers this service
free of charge to public service companies in this state.

Investigation work along this line is
to be continued, and the chemical engineering department is cooperating
with the railroad commission and the committee of the American Gas Institute in presenting this research work. Not only are the properties of gaseous fuels being studied at the university laboratories, but solid and
liquid fuels are also receiving attention.

Wisconsin has the record of being
the first state to prescribe a heating
value as the standard for gas for fuel
and illuminating purposes. Investigation showed that over ninety per cent
of the gas is used for the heat that it is capable of developing. The old

UNIVERSITY TESTS
GAS MEASUREMENTS

Finds Calorimeters Defective and Re-
ports State Railroad

Madison, Wis., Feb. 5.—The department of chemical engineering at the University of Wisconsin, in charge of Professor Charles E. Burgess, has
been carrying on an extensive series
of tests of the various methods for
measuring the heating values of gas,
in order to enable the State Railroad
commission to determine a standard
gas for fuel and illuminating purposes. The calorimeters of various types
made both in this country and abroad
used to test the heating value of gas
have been thoroughly tested. It was discovered that one type of instrument extensively used and sold
for heating values from 10 to 20
percent higher than the gases measured actually contained, and that erroneous results were being obtained
in gas producer and gas engine work
where these instruments were found
in use.

One of the most marked defects in
the calorimeter outfit was found due
to inaccurate thermometers. The
various users of gas calorimeters in Wisconsin may have these defects
remedied by the university experts.
The department of chemical engineering has just made the announcement
that it is in a position to calibrate
accurately such calorimeter thermom-
eters as may be sent to it by users in Wisconsin. The State Railroad Commission, through the cooperation of
this department, offers this service
free of charge to public service companies in this state.

Investigation work along this line is
to be continued, and the chemical engineering department is cooperating
with the railroad commission and the
committee of the American Gas Institute in presenting this research
work. Not only are the properties of gaseous fuels being studied at the
university laboratories, but solid and
liquid fuels are also receiving attention.

Wisconsin has the record of being
the first state to prescribe a heating
value as the standard for gas for fuel
and illuminating purposes. Investigation showed that over ninety per cent
of the gas is used for the heat that
it is capable of developing. The old candlepower standard is therefore wholly inadequate. It is predicted that the universal standard of heat unit, a recent report of the Public Utility Commission of New York suggests that an investigation is under way looking toward a change of standard in that state.
